Leggett & Platt Storage Products Group to Exhibit at ProMat 2007: Solutions That Make The Supply Chain Work

Leggett & Platt Storage Products Group is participating in the 2007 ProMat tradeshow, January 8-11 at McCormick Place South in Chicago. Leggett & Platt will be showcasing back-of-the-house and material handling products from its Gillis and Jarke and Morgan Marshall branches. All visitors will have the opportunity to view and experience the company's products and to register for a chance at winning a state-of-the-art GPS system. Company representatives will be on hand to assist dealers as well as new and existing customers. To learn more about Leggett & Platt, visit them in Chicago at booth #947.
